 - a. A vacancy is identified by the department chair and the appropriate Dean is notified.
 - b. The Dean notifies the appropriate Vice President that a vacancy exists.
 - c. The Vice President notifies the Academic Senate President that a vacancy exists and they jointly decide whether special circumstances warrant hiring temporary full-time faculty. These special circumstances include the following:
 - 1) The position can be covered only by full-time faculty.
 - 2) The position is to cover unexpected leave.
 - 3) The position is for a visiting professor.
 - 4) The program is under development.
 - 5) A special opportunity exists with regard to underrepresented groups.
 - 6) Time constraints do not permit a full recruitment.
2. Hiring Plan
 - a. The Department Chair will submit an on-line posting request.
 - b. The job description must be detailed in terms of the programmatic needs of the college, including a description of the discipline and areas of expertise within the discipline that the faculty member should be prepared to teach.

- c. The job description will include a requirement for sensitivity to and understanding of the diverse academic, socioeconomic, cultural, disability, and ethnic backgrounds of community college students per Title 5.
 - d. Standards and criteria for employment must be clearly stated in the job posting. These shall include that all faculty members hired by the District must possess, prior to the initial interview, the minimum qualifications, pursuant to Education Code, or will be certified to possess equivalent qualifications through a process established by the Academic Senate and the Board of Trustees.
 - e. Pursuant to Title 5, when any standards exceeding minimum qualifications are applied, the Office of Diversity, Equity and Compliance may take appropriate steps to eliminate any impact to underrepresented groups.
 - f. The on-line posting request will be electronically forwarded to the campus/college Dean, Vice President, and President for approval. If any one them feels that changes are needed, the posting will be sent back to the department with a rationale for the changes.
 - g. Once the request is approved and routed to Diversity and Human Resources for development of the posting notice, a copy of that notice, in draft form, shall be shared with the Chair of the Department before the posting is made public. If there are any changes required, Diversity and Human Resources will include those in the posting for publication.
3. Search Committee

In the case where there is no available faculty member in the appropriate discipline, the Department Chair will select one faculty member from a related discipline. Career and Technical disciplines may appoint industry or community experts. The Department Chair will act as the Chair of the search committee.
 - b. The Diversity and Human Resources Department will make sure that search committee members are aware of the importance of providing fair and thorough applicant screening, and of the interview and selection processes that conform to principles of equal employment opportunity (EEO). Each committee member shall be required to participate in an EEO training workshop prior to any participation in the selection process to assure that the members are sensitive to the concept of fairness and non-discrimination.
